MARCH / APRIL 2022

FROM THE EAST

Ahoy Brethren,

As I write this article, we are nearing the end of the 1st quarter of 2022. It has been a fun filled few months. I am pleased to report that we have read 1 new Application for Degrees, initiated 2 new brothers, and will be passing another brother to the Second Degree in March with the hope of one additional brother being ready for the same Degree on the same evening.

I would like to thank all of those who attended and supported our Annual Sweetheart's Night on 9 February. It was very well attended. I would also like to thank Paul Galyean, PM, for all the planning and hard work he put in to make this such a wonderful event. We would also like to congratulate Pam Cameron, who was selected as the Lodge Sweetheart for 2022.

On 23 February I had the honor to attend and participate in the Golden Veteran's Award for Most Worshipful R. Stephen Doan, PGM, at Santa Monica Palisades Lodge #308. MW Doan was Raised on 23 February 1971 and is a member of our Lodge by Affiliation. The Masters of each of his lodges all had a part in the ceremony, and the Golden Veterans Award was presented by MW Jeffrey Wilkins, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of California. Los Angeles Harbor Lodge was also represented by Shawn Donohugh, PM, and Patrick Donohugh, PM.

I was informed by the Los Angeles Masonic Service Bureau that due to scheduling issues with the Los Angeles Hilton Airport Hotel, the LAMSB Breakfast Reception for the Grand Master has been moved from 6 March to 17 July at the same time and place.

As we look to March and April of 2022, we have many events and activities coming up, and I look forward to seeing you all at Lodge and in person. We will soon be planning for a Third Degree as well as a potential First Degree. All assistance will be greatly appreciated.

Fraternally,

Greg Peterson
Worshipful Master

FOR REFLECTION

Cicero and Freemasonry

Our ancient brethren were well-read. The results of their reading and reflection found their way into both Blue Lodge and Scottish Rite degrees.

Casey A. Fletcher, currently Worshipful Master of Tuscan Lodge in Bartow, FL, an active member of the Scottish Rite Valley of Tampa, and a business executive in Florida, believes that lessons and wisdom of the ancient sages are offered to Masons in theatrical, but scholarly, fashion. Here are his thoughts:

Marcus Cicero (106-43 BCE) is a likely source for Masonic ideas, such as the four cardinal virtues, politics, and ethics. He was the Roman equivalent of Plato, a man of philosophical learning, a brilliant writer and statesman. The Founders of our country admired him for his character and principled political life.

Beyond politics and philosophy, Cicero offers sage advice on matters of life. A good example is his work, "On Old Age". Unlike Plato, who wrote using abstractions and theories, Cicero used historical figures. On Old Age is a dialogue between Marcus Porcius Cato, Publius Cornelius Scipio and Laelius, in which Cato, an old man, schools the younger two on the merits of properly considering old age.

He encourages their search for wisdom, their continuous education, and their active participation in the life of their city. He also makes a case for the immortality of the soul.

Cicero's advice to the young men may have found its way into our Masonic ritual and is well-summarized in the Master Mason lecture.

We can learn a lot by attending and participating in our degrees and by the frequent study of the ritual. We may never know who is really speaking to us – Cicero, Plato, Confucius, Aristotle, some Zen Master, Immanuel Kant, Edmund Burke or Solomon. The source of the great ideas, thoughts, and lessons is not so relevant.

What is important, as Cicero taught the young men, is that we continue to grow, learn and act so that, in old age, we many enjoy that "happy reflection consequent to a well-spent life."

The Letter G

The poem below was written by Dr. Rob Morris, the founder of the Order of the Eastern Star.

That Name! I learned it at a mother's knee,
When, looking up, the fond and tearful face
Beaming upon my eyes so tenderly,
She prayed that God her little son would bless!

That Name! I spoke it when I entered here,
And bowed the knee, as each Freemason must
From my heart's center with sincerity,
I said, In God, in God is all my trust!

That Name! I saw it o'er the Master's chair,
The Hieroglyphic bright, and, bending low,
Paid solemn homage at the emblem there,
That speaks of God, before whom all must bow!

That Name! In silence I invoked its power
When dangers thickened and when death was nigh!
In solemn awe I felt the death clouds lower,
And whispered, God be with me if I die!

That Name! the last upon my faltering tongue,
Ere death shall still it, it shall surely be
The Password to the high celestial throng,
Whose Lord is Gon in truth and majesty!

That Name then, Brothers, always gently speak,
Before your father's, mother's name revered!
Such blessings from His gracious hand we take,
O be His honor to our souls endeared!
