NOVEMBER / DECEMBER 2022

FROM THE EAST

Ahoy Brethren,

Can you believe it, the holiday season is already upon us? It seems like this year has just flown by.

As we look to November and December, we will be holding our Annual Election of Officers for the 2023 Masonic Year along with two Hall Director positions at our November stated meeting. I hope to see as many of the brothers as possible at the November stated meeting. On Wednesday, December 14th, we will again hold our Annual Family Christmas Party at the Lodge. The Beach Cities Shrine Club will also hold its Annual Christmas Party at L.A. Harbor Lodge on Saturday Dec 3. Please get in touch with Paul Galyean for more information.

At the 173rd Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of California, Most Worshipful Randall L. Brill was installed as Grand Master. Our lodge was represented by Worshipful Shawn Donohugh (voting delegate) and Worshipful Patrick Donohugh. I want to thank Shawn for stepping up and voicing our opinion on matters at the Grand Lodge level.

A copy of the results of the Annual Communication can be found in the Resources tab on iMember 2.0 via the Grand Lodge website.

In August 2022, our Masonic District changed once again. Our current district consists of Los Angeles Harbor, Torrance University, Redondo, and Angels Gate.

I want to thank L.A. Harbor Lodge for allowing me the opportunity to serve you this year as the Worshipful Master, it has truly been an honor.

Fraternally,

Greg Peterson
Worshipful Master

FOR REFLECTION

D-DAY AND THE GRAND LODGE OF NEBRASKA

From The Sesquicentennial History of the Grand Lodge of Nebraska 1857 to 2007 by MW Bro. Russell G. Reno, 2007.

On the morning of Tuesday, June 6, 1944, while the Allied Armies were landing in Normandy, France, the Grand Lodge of Nebraska opened its annual communication in Omaha. When Grand Master William B. Wanner opened the Grand Lodge at 9:30 a.m. Central Daylight Time, it was 3:30 p.m. in France. After the invocation by V.W. Grand Chaplain George Allen Beecher, the Grand Master announced to the assembled brethren: “We stand here this morning on the threshold of a great event in history. The first startling news we have had this morning should inspire all of us to greater achievement.”

In the afternoon, Grand Orator, Worshipful Bro. Francis L. Bouquet began his address, “The Altar of Masonry”:

“On a day so momentous as this—D Day in Europe; in a Day so momentous as this in the destiny of a people, and so vital to the existence of our Craft, no trivial theme can consume our attentions. For in this very hour, tens of thousands of our brethren, who from within our Citadel of Faith, heard the insistent and threatening alarm at the door, grasped from the Arsenal of Democracy, every available sword, and having rushed to the Ramparts Which Masonry ever watches with unceasing vigilance, now are engaged in mortal combat with the implacable foes of our cherished ideals and heritage. This very hour, craftsman Hiram Abiff is slain with violence in a thousand localities, and not nearly in pageantry, but in stark and dread reality. Many of these sat by our side, in this very place, a short year ago. But today they are away. Soon in our lodge may come the word to us that this very day, at the hands of the evil Ruffians, our beloved brethren met evil treatment. Soon in our lodges and in our hearts, acacia and evergreen may remind us that the cost of building the Temple is not yet fully paid, and that we, like our brethren, must labor to the end of our strength and our devotion.”
